

Formal acceptance letter for participation in the MOBILE UNLIMITED Project

The University of Porto, as coordinating institution of the MOBILE UNLIMITED project, financed by the European Commission within the framework of the "Erasmus +", informs that SCARLET AVA FERNANDES has been selected and awarded a scholarship for an Academic Staff mobility of 5 working days and 2 days for travel at Universidade do Porto, Portugal.

The scholarship comprises:

- a payment of 1120 EUR transferred in 1 installment starting on the date of arrival, which will cover expenses of accommodation, subsistence and every other cost related to the stay at the host institution;
- expenses with the two-way travel;
- health, travel and accident insurance, contracted by the University of Porto, as Coordinating Institution, with effect from the beginning of the mobility period and valid in the host institution country. The insurance, with unlimited coverage, including repatriation expenses, is valid for the entire scholarship holder's mobility period in the host institution.

Porto, 27/02/2019

Bárbara Costa
Director of the International Office of the University of Porto
Erasmus+ Institutional Coordinator

